Project

Book store

My first project at FPT Aptech, in semester 1. It's a simple web app, using ASP.NET, for selling books.

Retail store

My project for semester 2. We built an application for a retail store to manage products and customers. It's developed by Java Swing.

English class

My final project at FPT Aptech. It's an advanced web app, developed by JSP. Users can learn and test their English skills.

Offline turn-base game

A project I developed in my free time. It's a game that imitated some functions of TS Online (a famous turn-based game in 2006). I make it to practice Java Swing.
